Mr Charles E Vasaly:-
Dear Sir:-

In reply to your letter for information on what Carl John Alfred Hammerberg He has spent considerable of his time at our farm he always came satisfied to associate just with our family and stay'd right with us. We were very much surprised when he was blamed for a thing like that. For he was very much of a moral a bird in the woods could scare him.

The last couple of years he has been <sup>old enough</sup> able to get work in town and so he has helped her mother for she is a widow. He has always associated with boys that was much younger than himself. and nice boys at that.

The reason he was convicted he has been brought up to tell the truth and so he did.

On the trial there was not one witness against him.
He just told the truth like he has been brought up to do and that was that he went with the crowd. and there were thousands that did the same.

Yours truly

C. J. Johnson
