

Mr. Charles E. Vasaly,
Superintendent
Sept 10, 1922.

Dear Sir:

I wish to inform you in last my work.

Saturday night after my work was done, I dressed up to come home, and went to the house.
Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were quarling, so I was going to wait un-
till they were done.
I went a little way
from the door, where where their boys were fixing the car.

Mr. Thompson came out and saw me dressed up, and said, "are you going in too?" I said yes, I was going to tell him, I made a pair of shoes, and a pair of pants, but did not get time, he said you might as well take ^{your} time with you, He said, Young man you are breaking your parole, I told him I did not think so, as my papers says, he should
